

AIMA honours eight business leaders

Eight business leaders received awards for various categories at a function organised by the All India Management Association in Delhi on Wednesday. While Punit Goenka, MD & CEO, Zee Entertainment Enterprises, received the award for outstanding contribution to media, Google India was adjudged the Multinational company of the Year and Bharat Electronics the Outstanding PSU. Transformational Business Leader of the Year award went to Acharya Balkrishna, chairman and MD, Patanjali Ayurved; Entrepreneur of the Year to Vijay Shekhar Sharma, founder, Paytm; and Motilal Oswal, CMD, Motilal Oswal Financial Services, was selected as Outstanding Institution Builder. Indu Jain, chairperson, Bennett Coleman & Co, got the Lifetime Contribution award to media and Ali Abbas Zafar, director, was chosen the Director of the Year.

BS REPORTER